

I assumed the grade and rating were entities because they could not be attributes of a relationship. Therefore they are weak entities dependant on the student who gives said grade and rating.